The unaccountable "gush" of our Shanghai contemporaries over the triamplant solution of the vexed question of Imperial the Secretary of State for the Colonies. Sir audience has not unnaturally provoked comments in an opposite sense. The truth of the matter has, we hope, at last been got at. the letters we unblish to-day from independent correspondents appearing to fill all the gaps which were left in the previous record. The case was perfectly well stated in the Daily Press of 28th December, and nothing of any consequence has since been added thereto. Whoever is responsible for chanting Mr. O'Coxon on this occasion has obviously overshot the mark, so that in the end the Minister will lose rather than gain by the zeal of his friends. There has not been much time to reap practical fruit from the cordial reception which Mr. -O'Conon received from the Emperor, but so far as the particulars of his diplomatic campaign during the winter have leaked out there does not appear to be any ground for assuming the position of the Ministers. Certainly his influence with the Tsungli Yamen has not been proved to have off as they have ever done, and neither Mr. O'Coxon nor any one else, unless indeed Our NEW FACTORY has been recently resitted it be M.
